Sir:

In reply to the notification of missing requirement mailed May 3, 2007, applicants submit a copy of the original Request filed with the referenced International application (PCT/US05/08474) on 03/15/2005, which contains a declaration sheet signed by each inventor. The inventors signed their respective names on separate declaration sheets although both names appeared on each declaration sheet. Both declaration sheets were filed with the original PCT application. Thus, the notification incorrectly indicates that only one of the two inventors signed the declaration when, in fact, both inventors had signed. In connection with the alleged missing declaration, applicants submit herewith a

Sir:

In reply to the notification of missing requirement mailed May 3, 2007, applicants submit a copy of the original Request filed with the referenced International application (PCT/US05/08474) on 03/15/2005, which contains a declaration sheet signed by each inventor. Both declaration sheets were filed with the original PCT application. Thus, the notification incorrectly indicates that only one of the two inventors signed the declaration when, in fact, both inventors had signed. In connection with the alleged missing declaration, applicants submit herewith a $65 surcharge but respectfully request a refund due to an error on the part of the U.S. Receiving Office.

Applicants also submit a $50 search fee and a $100 examination fee. Total fee submitted herewith is $215, as requested by the notification.

A copy of the Notification of Missing Requirements is attached hereto.
